15.7.3(c) shall not be subject to the 7 day advance notice period guideline of the Rosters clause within this Agreement.

15.7.3(d) shall not have any minimum engagement period.

15.7.4 All conditions of employment, excepting those as listed within this clause or specifically noted elsewhere in this Agreement, will be equivalent to the basis of engagement, that is, full-time, part-time or casual.

15.8 School Term-Based Employee

15.8.1 A school term-based Employee is an Employee who is engaged on either a full-time or part-time basis to work predominantly in connection with programs based on school terms (for example, aquatic education programs).

15.8.2 During the period in which the relevant program is not being conducted, the agreed minimum number of hours of work per week for the Employee will not apply, and the Employer may offer and the Employee may accept work in a different role.

15.8.3 If work in a different role is not offered, or not accepted by the Employee, and the Employee is not taking annual leave during the period in which the relevant program is not being run, then the Employee will be deemed to be on leave without pay.

15.8.4 All conditions of employment, excepting those as listed within this clause or specifically noted elsewhere in this Agreement, will be equivalent to the basis of engagement, that is, full-time or part-time.

16  POSITION DESCRIPTION

16.1 The Employer will provide each Employee with a position description which clearly and accurately identifies as a minimum:

- The requirements of the job
- The skills, knowledge, experience, qualifications and/or training required
- The responsibility of the level of the position
- The organisational relationship of the position, and
- The accountability/extent of authority of the position

16.2 The position description shall be reviewed by the Employer from time to time in consultation with the Employee concerned (usually annually for permanent positions) to ensure that it accurately reflects the role being performed.

17  PROBATIONARY PERIOD

17.1 All Employees will be subject to a probationary period of 3 months upon commencement of employment. The Employer may extend the period of probation by an amount of time up to a maximum of an additional 3 months. This probationary period does not, and is not intended, to affect the applicability of the qualifying period referred to in section 643 of the Act.

17.2 The probationary period will be notified to an Employee before commencement of employment.

17.3 During the probationary period, the Employer will review the Employee’s employment and will either confirm the continuing employment of the Employee; or will terminate employment.

17.4 The Employer or the Employee may terminate the employment during the probationary period by giving the other party 1 week’s notice.
18 TRIAL PERIOD

18.1 Where an Employee commences in a new position at another YMCA Workplace, or commences a new position at the same Workplace, he/she may be subject to a 3 month trial period. Where the Employee is not successful in this new position, the Employee may revert to the former position or to a suitable alternative position.

18.2 The trial period will be notified to an Employee before commencement of employment.

19 DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND GRIEVANCES

19.1 It is the objective of the Employer to resolve disputes and grievances as they arise in an efficient, fair and equitable manner.

19.2 In the event of a dispute arising in the workplace, the procedure to resolve the matter will be as follows:

19.2.1 Stage One

19.2.1(a) In the first instance the Employee shall attempt to resolve the issue through discussion with his/her immediate supervisor. If the issue is related to the Employee’s immediate supervisor, the matter should be referred to the next level of management.

19.2.1(b) If the matter remains unresolved from this discussion, or remains unresolved after 10 days from the commencement of Stage One, the matter may progress to Stage Two.

19.2.2 Stage Two

19.2.2(a) One or more discussions should be held between the Employee and more senior levels of management in an attempt to resolve the issue.

19.2.2(b) If the matter remains unresolved after at least 2 such discussions, or remains unresolved after 10 days from the commencement of Stage Two, the matter may progress to Stage Three.

19.2.3 Stage Three

19.2.3(a) Either party may refer the matter to a private mediator or to the Commission for the purposes of conciliation, mediation or other type of alternative dispute resolution. If the dispute is over the application of the Agreement, the matter may be referred to the Commission for arbitration.
19.2.3(b) If the matter is referred to the Commission for arbitration, the Commission may exercise the procedural powers in relation to hearings, witnesses, evidence and submissions which are necessary to make the arbitration effective.

19.2.3(c) A decision of the member of the Commission will bind the parties subject to either party exercising a right of appeal against the decision to a Full Bench.

19.3 An Employee may be required to formalise his/her grievance in writing. Any such submission will remain confidential and will only be circulated to parties directly involved in the dispute resolution process, unless wider circulation is necessary in order to satisfactorily investigate the matter in question.

19.4 While the parties attempt to resolve the matter, work will continue as normal unless the Employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his/her health and safety.
Neither party shall be prejudiced as to final resolution by the continuance of work in accordance with this clause.

19.5 At all Stages of the process, a nominated representative for either or both parties may be present and involved in discussions. This clause does not permit a party to be represented by an externally practicing legal practitioner during the process at Stages One and Two, but either party may retain legal representation at the Commission or private arbitration stage of the process, or to advise them at any stage.

19.6 An Employee who is party to a dispute must, while the dispute is being resolved:

19.6.1 Continue to work in accordance with his or her contract of employment, unless the Employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health and safety; and 19.6.2 Comply with any reasonable direction given by the Employer to perform other available work, either in the same workplace or at another workplace.

19.7 For the avoidance of doubt:

19.7.1 This clause does not apply to disputes and grievances arising out of:

19.7.1(a) Occupational health and safety issues; or

19.7.1(b) Termination of employment

19.7.2 Only clause 20.2.1 (Stage One) and clause 20.2.2(a) of Stage Two apply to disputes and grievances arising out of performance management and disciplinary procedures.
20.1 An Employee may be regarded as having abandoned his or her employment, if an Employee is absent from work for:

20.1.1 5 days for a full-time Employee; or

20.1.2 3 shifts for part-time and casual Employees and the Employee cannot establish to the satisfaction of the Employer a “reasonable cause” for the absence within this time.

20.2 The Employer shall take reasonable steps to ascertain the cause of the Employee’s absence prior to deeming employment to have been terminated in accordance with this clause.

20.3 If an Employee terminates his or her employment by abandonment, the termination shall operate from the date of:

20.3.1 his or her last attendance at work; or 20.3.2 his or her last authorised absence;

whichever is the later.

20.4 Any unauthorised absence from work may be deemed an act of serious misconduct and may initiate the Termination clause of this Agreement.
HOURS OF WORK, ROSTERS AND BREAKS

21 HOURS OF WORK

21.1 Ordinary Hours

21.1.1 The ordinary hours of work for Employees shall be, for:

21.1.1(a) Full-time Employees, no more than an average 38 hours per week to be worked over 76 hours within a 2-week work cycle;

21.1.1(b) Part-time Employees, less than an average of 38 hours per week within a 2-week work cycle;

21.1.1(c) Casual Employees, variable per week according to organisational demands.

21.1.2 The number of ordinary hours to be worked on any one day for full time and part time Employees shall not exceed 10 hours in total, except by mutual agreement between the Employer and an Employee, in which case the total number of hours worked on any one day may be increased to 12 hours.

21.1.3 The number of ordinary hours to be worked on any one day for casual Employees shall not exceed 10 hours in total.

21.1.4 No full-time or part-time Employee shall receive less than 2 consecutive days off per week or, alternatively, 4 consecutive days off per fortnight, unless mutually agreed.

21.1.5 Ordinary hours may be worked both inside and outside the Span of Ordinary Hours, as further set out below. Only ordinary hours worked outside the Span of Ordinary Hours will attract the penalty rates as set out in this clause.

18.2 Full Time – Accrued Day Off System

21.1.6 Full time Employees who work a fixed 5 day roster and work 7.6 hours per day over a 4-week roster cycle (i.e. 20 day work cycle) may be offered the option by the YMCA Manager to work 8 hours per day with one accrued day off in a 20 day work cycle.

21.1.7 Accrued day off work arrangements must be approved by the YMCA Manager before being implemented. The YMCA Manager will consider the operational requirements of the workplace before giving any such approval. Accrued day off work arrangements must allow for adequate breaks between shifts and otherwise comply with the principles for establishing rosters.

21.1.8 The Accrued day off must be taken within the same 4-week roster cycle in which it is accrued (i.e. an accrued day off cannot be carried over into the next 4-week roster cycle) unless otherwise authorised by the YMCA Manager. If the accrued day off is not taken, it will be paid for at the Employee’s basic hourly rate of pay. Such time will not be regarded as overtime for the purposes of this Agreement, but will be regarded as reasonable additional hours for the purpose of the Standard.

21.1.9 The Employer may cancel any accrued day off arrangements at its sole discretion.

21.2 Span of Ordinary Hours

21.2.1 For all Employees other than those engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, the span of ordinary hours shall be between:

- 5.00am and 11.30pm Mondays to Fridays, and
- 6.00am and 10.00pm Saturdays and Sundays

21.2.2 For Employees engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, the span of ordinary hours shall be between:

- 7.00am and 7.00pm Mondays to Fridays.

21.2.3 In special circumstances, including but not limited to a heat wave or community event, which require the YMCA Workplace to remain open for an extended period of time (which may be until the time of opening on the following day), the span of ordinary hours of work will be extended to match the extended opening period. This clause only applies to YMCA Workplaces managed or operated by the Employer under contract with Local Government and will not be relied upon by a YMCA Workplace more than once each calendar year.

21.3 Work Performed Outside the Span of Ordinary Hours

21.3.1 All ordinary hours of work performed outside of the span of ordinary hours,

21.3.1(a) for all Employees, excepting those engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, shall be paid at a penalty rate of 50% calculated on the base rate of pay.

21.3.1(b) for full-time and part-time Employees engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, shall be paid:
21.3.1(b)(i) an additional penalty rate of $1.56 per hour for any such time worked outside the hours of 7.00am to 7.00pm Mondays to Fridays inclusive, with a minimum payment of $2.37 for any one day.

21.3.1(b)(ii) at a penalty rate of 25% calculated on the base rate of pay, for any such time worked from midnight Friday to midnight Saturday.

21.3.1(b)(iii) at a penalty rate of 75% calculated on the base rate of pay, for any such time worked from midnight Saturday to midnight Sunday.

21.3.1(c) for casual Employees engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, shall be paid as per the Casual Loading subclause of this Agreement.

21.3.2 No Employee will work outside the span of ordinary hours without the prior approval of the YMCA Manager, unless that Employee by reason of the urgency of the work is required to perform such out of hours work without prior approval.

21.4 Staff Occupying Other Positions

21.4.1 From time to time, the YMCA may have available positions in other areas of the YMCA. Positions available may include a:

21.4.1(a) casual position; or

21.4.1(b) part-time sessional position; or

21.4.1(c) part-time seasonal position; or

21.4.1(d) part-time school-term based position.

21.4.2 A member of staff may apply to work in a position of the type set out in clause 22.4.1 above in addition to regular duties.

21.4.3 A request by an Employee to work in a position of the type set out in clause 22.4.1 must be approved in advance by the YMCA Manager. A request will only be approved where the arrangements meet the Employer’s operational requirements, allow for adequate breaks between shifts and otherwise comply with the principles for establishing rosters.

21.4.4 An Employee who works in a position of the type referred to in this clause will be paid at the appropriate base rate of pay for the classification of the work performed.
21.4.5 An Employee who works in a part time position as outlined within the clause will be paid at the appropriate base rate of pay for the classification of the work performed.

21.4.6 An Employee who works in a casual position as outlined within the clause will be paid at the appropriate casual rate of pay for the classification of the work performed.

21.5 Flexible Working Hours

21.6 The Employer aims, wherever practicable, to provide flexible working arrangements which balance service requirements with an Employee’s personal needs.

21.7 Upon request for time off by an Employee to attend to personal or family matters, with agreement from the YMCA Manager, the following may be available in addition to normal leave requirements:

21.7.1 Varying start and finishing times to meet personal requirements.

21.7.2 A full-time or part-time Employee may elect to work make-up time, under which the Employee takes time off during the span of ordinary hours, and works those hours at a later time.

21.7.3 Such time worked in accordance with the provisions of this clause will not be regarded as overtime or work outside the span of ordinary hours so as to attract a penalty payment.

21.7.4 On each occasion that the Employee elects to use this provision, the resulting arrangement must be recorded in the time and wages records at the time when the agreement is made.

21.8 Job Share

21.9 Job Share is a flexible work arrangement which is implemented as a means of balancing work and personal needs. Job Share is an arrangement where 2 Employees, by mutual agreement with their YMCA Manager, share all the duties and responsibilities of a permanent full time position. A Job Share arrangement may only be entered into with the consent of the YMCA Manager.

21.10 All conditions of employment for Employees participating in Job Share arrangements will be equivalent to the basis of engagement, that is, part time.

21.11 Employees participating in Job Share shall, in conjunction with the YMCA Manager, determine how the job is to be split and agree to the hours for each participating Employee. The agreed hours of work of the Job Share partners will not exceed the ordinary hours of work for a full time Employee, that is, 76 hours in a 2-week roster cycle.
21.12 The Employer reserves the right to review any Job Share arrangement and to cancel it if necessary on reasonable business grounds. If the Employer is unable to redeploy the affected Employees to a suitable alternative position, any such cancellation will be regarded as a redundancy situation, and clause 41, Redundancy, will apply.

21.13 A Job Share arrangement may also be cancelled if employment of one or both of the parties to the Job Share is terminated for any reason, or one or both of the Employees resigns or moves to another position within the organisation, and the Employer is unable to recruit another Employee to fill the vacant Job Share.

22 ROSTERS

22.1 General

22.1.1 An Employee shall be present and ready to commence work on time and will not depart from their allocated work prior to the official finishing time.

22.1.2 The Employer will establish rosters according to the needs of its business and will endeavour to provide reasonable work arrangements for all Employees.

22.1.3 In establishing rosters, the Employer will have regard to the following guidelines and principles:

   22.1.3(a) Except in unusual circumstances, rosters will be posted 7 days in advance.

   22.1.3(b) Rosters are subject to organisational needs and may be subject to change during the life of the roster.

22.1.4 Provided that the arrangements meet the Employer’s operational requirements, allow for adequate breaks between shifts and otherwise comply with the principles for establishing rosters under this Agreement, Employees are:

   22.1.4(a) permitted to swap rostered shifts with the approval of their Supervisor or the YMCA Manager; and 22.1.4(b) responsible for covering their rostered shifts, unless:

      22.1.4(b)(i) mutually agreed between the Employee and their Supervisor or the YMCA Manager; or

      22.1.4(b)(ii) the change in shift is caused by illness of the Employee or a member of their immediate family or household, in which case the Employer will cover the rostered shifts. The Employee must, if required by the Employer, provide a medical certificate from a registered health practitioner, or if it is not reasonably practicable for the Employee to give the Employer a medical certificate then a statutory declaration made by the Employee which complies with the Notice and Evidence Required clauses of clause 32.2 Sick Leave or clause 32.3, Carer’s Leave, whichever is relevant.

22.2 Split Shifts

22.2.1 Broken periods of work or split shifts may only be introduced with the agreement of the Employee directly affected.

22.2.2 A minimum 2 hour break between shifts will be provided when splitting a shift unless mutually agreed between the YMCA Manager and Employee.

22.3 Staff Ratios

22.3.1 The Employer will ensure that rosters reflect any minimum staff ratios prescribed by relevant legislation or industry guidelines (as varied from time to time) in relation to the performance of specific roles.

23 OVERTIME

23.1 Reasonable Overtime

23.1.1 An Employer may require an Employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates (or for time off in lieu, in accordance with this Agreement).

23.1.2 An Employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the Employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:

23.1.2(a) any risk to Employee health and safety;

23.1.2(b) the Employee’s personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;

23.1.2(c) the needs of the YMCA Workplace;

23.1.2(d) the notice (if any) given by the Employer of the overtime and by the Employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and 23.1.2(e) any other relevant matter.

23.2 Calculation of Overtime

23.2.1 Subject to clause 24.2.3, a full-time Employee shall be paid overtime (or receive time off in lieu) for:

23.2.1(a) all work before his/her rostered commencing time or after his/her rostered ceasing time on any day (as varied pursuant to clause 23.1.3(b) above);

23.2.1(b) all work on his/her day(s) off;

23.2.1(c) all work in excess of a total of 10 hours in any one day, (unless the total number of ordinary hours worked on any one day has been increased to 12 hours by mutual agreement with the Employee); or 23.2.1(d) all work in excess of an average of 38 hours per week averaged over a 2-week cycle of the roster.

23.2.2 A part-time Employee shall be paid overtime (or receive time off in lieu) for:

23.2.2(a) all work in excess of a total of 10 hours in any one day, (unless the total number of ordinary hours worked on any one day has been increased to 12 hours by mutual agreement with the Employee); or

23.2.2(b) all work in excess of 76 hours in a 2-week work cycle;

23.2.2(c) all work carried out on a day the part-time Employee is not normally rostered unless the Employee has agreed to work that day.

23.2.3 Any hours worked under clause 22.4 will not be regarded as overtime.

23.2.4 The rate of overtime

23.2.4(a) for all Employees, excepting those engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, shall be time and a half for the first 2 hours and double time thereafter.

23.2.4(b) for Employees engaged in positions within the Camping and Accommodation Staff Grades Classifications, shall be:

23.2.4(b)(i) time and a half for the first 2 hours and double time thereafter, for any such overtime worked between Monday to Friday inclusive;
23.2.4(b)(ii) time and three-quarters for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter, for any such overtime worked between midnight Friday and midnight Saturday;

23.2.4(b)(iii) double time for any such overtime worked between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday;

23.3 Overtime Approved in Advance

23.3.1 No Employee will perform overtime without the prior approval of the YMCA Manager.

23.3.2 Any overtime hours will only be approved when the arrangements meet the Employer's operational requirements, allow for adequate breaks between shifts and otherwise comply with the principles for establishing rosters.

23.4 Time Off in Lieu of Overtime

23.4.1 The Employer and the majority of Employees at a YMCA Workplace, or part of a YMCA Workplace, may agree to establish a system of time off in lieu of overtime, and such agreement will be recorded in writing. Once this system has been established, all overtime will be compensated by time off in lieu of overtime, except as otherwise set out in this clause.

23.4.2 Following the introduction of a system of time off in lieu of overtime:

23.4.2(a) An Employee may elect, with the consent of the Employer, to take time off in lieu of payment for overtime at a time or times agreed with the Employer.

23.4.2(b) Overtime taken as time off during ordinary hours must be taken as 1.5 hours for each overtime hour worked.

23.4.2(c) An Employer must, if requested by an Employee, provide payment at the rate provided for the calculation of overtime as prescribed within this Agreement, for any overtime worked where time off in lieu as prescribed in this clause has not been taken within 4 weeks of accrual.

23.5 If an Employee has not had at least 10 consecutive hours break between the termination of work after working overtime one day and the commencement of work the following day, the Employee shall, subject to this clause, be released from work until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay.

23.6 If the Employee is instructed by the employer, or required given the circumstances of work, to resume or to continue work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty after performing overtime, the Employee shall be paid at double time until the Employee is released from duty for this period, and the Employee shall be entitled to be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during that absence.

24 MEAL BREAKS AND REST PERIODS

24.1 An Employee will be allowed an unpaid meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than 1 hour each day as mutually agreed. Subject to the provisions of this clause, no Employee will be required to work more than 5 hours without a break for a meal.

24.2 Workplace operational requirements may result in the need to delay a break, in which case the break will be taken at a mutually agreed time.

24.3 If an Employee is interrupted during his or her normal meal break and directed to work, the Employee will be entitled to take a further 30 minute meal break during his or her working hours without deduction of pay.

24.4 If an Employee is required by the YMCA Manager to remain at the YMCA Workplace or work through a meal break, the meal break will be paid at the Employee’s normal rate of pay.

24.5 No Employee shall be required to work longer than 3 hours without a 10 minute paid rest period.

24.6 Employees who work 7 hours or more in a day or shift will be entitled to two paid 10 minute rest periods in addition to the unpaid meal break.

24.7 An Employee working for more than 3 hours in workplaces where the temperature is over 36 degrees Celsius shall be entitled to a 20 minute rest period after each 3 hours worked, without deduction of pay.

25 STANDBY, EMERGENCY WORK AND DISRUPTION

25.1 Standby and Emergency work occurs where an Employee is directed by the Employer to be on standby in accordance with the provisions of this clause. This clause has no application where an Employee requests to be placed on a preferential rostering system (e.g. Hot Day Rosters).

25.2 Any hours an Employee is on standby but is not actually performing work will not be regarded as work which the Employee is required or requested to perform. Any time for which an employee is on standby (whether the Employee is working or not) shall not be taken into account for the purposes of the Hours of Work and Overtime clauses set out in this Agreement.
25.3 Non-Residential Situations

25.3.1 Standby

25.3.1(a) An Employee, who is on standby for non residential situations, is not rostered to work but has been required by the Employer to be readily available to perform emergency work if required.

25.3.1(b) The Employee must be easily contactable and able and suitable to attend work within a 30 minute period (for example: the Employee must maintain a zero alcohol level).

25.3.1(c) Each Employee on standby for non-residential situations shall be paid an allowance equivalent to $4.50 for each hour during which the Employee is required to standby.

25.3.1(d) Any arrangement to spend time on standby must be pre-approved by the YMCA Manager.

25.3.2 Emergency Work

25.3.2(a) Employees on standby may be required to perform emergency work which does not require the Employee to attend the YMCA Workplace, as the work can be completed from home or while not at the YMCA Workplace.

25.3.2(b) Emergency work performed from home or otherwise not at the YMCA Workplace shall be paid at time and a half of the base hourly rate, from the time the work commences until the time the work is completed.

25.3.2(c) If an Employee is required to attend his or her workplace to perform emergency work, all work performed by the Employee shall be paid at the rate of time and a half of the base rate of pay, from the time the work commences until the time the work is completed. The Employee will receive a minimum of 2 hours payment at time and a half of the base rate of pay.

25.3.2(d) This base rate of pay is exclusive of any casual loadings, or shift penalty loadings for work performed outside the span of ordinary hours, and these will not be included in the rate to be received by the Employee when performing emergency work.
25.3.2(e) The Employee must provide to the Employer for approval, an accurate record of all time spent on emergency work whether at the YMCA Workplace or otherwise, before the Employee is entitled to payment for such emergency work.

25.3.2(f) The Employer reserves the right to refuse entry to the work site and/or require the Employee to cease emergency work if the Employee is deemed not suitable to attend for work. The entitlement to any payment shall be withdrawn.

25.3.2(g) An Employee may elect, as an alternative to receiving payment for emergency work as outlined within this subclause, to take time off in lieu of payment for the period of time performing emergency work (that is hour off for hour worked), at a time or times agreed with the Employer.

25.4 Residential Situations

25.4.1 Standby

25.4.1(a) Residential situations shall include:

25.4.1(a)(i) staff permanently residing on Employer premises;
25.4.1(a)(ii) staff occasionally residing on Employer premises (including overnight stays);
25.4.1(a)(iii) staff required to reside overnight or away from home to work on Employer camps, fields trips and other professional programs.

25.4.1(b) An Employee, who is on standby for residential situations, is not rostered to work but has been required by the Employer to be immediately available to perform emergency work if required.

25.4.1(c) The Employee must be easily contactable, able to undertake duties immediately by remaining on Employer premises or on-site, and be suitable to work (for example: the Employee must maintain a zero alcohol level).

25.4.1(d) Each Employee on standby for residential situations shall be paid an allowance of $40 per overnight stay period.

25.4.1(e) Any arrangement to spend time on standby must be pre-approved by the YMCA Manager.

25.4.2 Emergency Work
25.4.2(a) Emergency work performed by the Employee during the standby period shall be paid at time and a half of the base hourly rate, from the time the work commences until the time the work is completed.

25.4.2(b) This base rate of pay is exclusive of any casual loadings, or shift penalty loadings for work performed outside the span of ordinary hours, and these will not be included in the rate to be received by the Employee when performing emergency work.

25.4.2(c) The payment referred to above shall not extend beyond the period of the overnight stay for standby.

25.4.2(d) The Employee must provide to the Employer for approval, an accurate record of all time spent on emergency work whether at the YMCA Workplace or otherwise, before the Employee is entitled to payment for such emergency work.

25.4.2(e) The Employer reserves the right to remove the Employee from the work site and/or require the Employee to cease emergency work if the Employee is deemed not suitable to attend for work. The entitlement to any payment shall be withdrawn.

25.4.2(f) An Employee may elect, as an alternative to receiving payment for emergency work as outlined within this subclause, to take time off in lieu of payment for the period of time performing emergency work (that is hour off for hour worked), at a time or times agreed with the Employer.

25.5 Disruption

25.5.1 If an Employee has not been requested to be on standby but is disrupted outside of his/her normal hours of work (or his/her current rostered hours) in accordance with the provisions of this clause, the Employee shall be entitled to a disruption allowance.

25.5.2 A “disruption” shall be defined as where an Employee is contacted in relation to a work matter by phone or in person (if living on the Employer premises) for a period which lasts in excess of 15 minutes, or is required to perform work which lasts in excess of 15 minutes.

25.5.3 An Employee, who is disrupted in accordance with the provisions of this clause and performs emergency work, shall be paid in accordance with the Emergency Work for Non-Residual Situations subclause of this Agreement.
26 HIGHER DUTIES ALLOWANCE

26.1 Higher Duties

26.1.1 An Employee who is required by the Employer to perform the duties of another Employee at a higher classification for 2 or more consecutive working days or shifts shall be paid a higher duties allowance for the period for which duties are assumed.

26.1.2 A request to perform higher duties must be provided in writing and authorised by the YMCA Manager prior to the commencement of any such work wherever possible, stating the work to be performed, the expected duration and the appropriate higher duties allowance.

26.1.3 The amount of the higher duties allowance shall be determined by the relevant supervisor, and approved by the YMCA Manager.

26.1.4 This clause shall not apply if the Employee is undertaking such higher-level work for training or professional development purposes only.

26.2 Mixed Functions

26.2.1 The nature of the industry is such that Employees may be rostered by an Employer to work at different classification levels, whether or not this occurs during the same rostered period of duty. In such a case, the Employee will be paid at the relevant rate for the classification level at which he/she is rostered, for the period of time for which he/she is rostered to perform such duties.

27 MEAL ALLOWANCE

27.1 An Employee who is required to work 9.5 hours or more in a single shift will be offered an adequate meal by the Employer. If the Employer does not provide the Employee with such meal, the Employee will be paid a meal allowance of $15.00.
28 TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

28.1 Payment of Travel Time

28.1.1 The Employer will not unreasonably request an Employee to commence and/or cease work at a location or YMCA Workplace, which is not his or her usual place/s of duty.

28.1.2 Where a full-time or part-time Employee is instructed to commence work and/or to cease work at a location or YMCA Workplace which is not his or her usual place/s of duty, then the Employee will be paid at his/her base rate of pay for the time spent in travelling between home and the new location, to the extent that the time exceeds the time he/she usually spends in getting to work and returning home.

28.1.3 Where a full-time or part-time Employee is required to commence and/or cease work at a location or YMCA Workplace which is not his or her usual place/s of duty due to participation in a non-mandatory training session, the Employer may offer the Employee payment at his/her base rate of pay for the time spent travelling between home and the new location, to the extent that the time exceeds the time he/she usually spends in getting to work and returning home.

28.1.4 Where an Employee is required by the Employer to travel from one workplace to another, all reasonable time taken by the Employee will be paid at his/her base rate of pay.

28.2 Payment of Motor Vehicle Allowance & Travel Allowance

28.2.1 An Employee may be required to use his or her own personal motor vehicle for travel for work purposes. This travel includes:

28.2.1(a) travel between YMCA Workplaces, and 28.2.1(b) travel between locations in the course of his/her employment; and

28.2.1(c) for full-time or part-time Employees, the additional distance travelled by an Employee between home and to commence/ and or to cease work at a place of duty which is not the Employee’s usual place of duty, when compared to the distance travelled by an Employee between home and their usual place of duty.

28.2.2 With pre-approval by the YMCA Manager, an Employee who uses his or her own personal motor vehicle for such travel for work purposes will be paid an allowance per kilometre travelled for single trip distances up to 50 kilometres.
28.2.3 The allowance per kilometre shall be in accordance with the Annual Australian Taxation Office (ATO) ruling as at 1 July each year.

28.2.4 For single trip distances over 50 kilometres, the YMCA Manager will determine a travel allowance payment to the Employee from the following options:

- 28.2.4(a) an allowance per kilometre for the first 50 kilometres in accordance with the published ATO rates, with an allowance for the remainder of the kilometres at 50% of the published ATO rates; or

- 28.2.4(b) an alternative rate determined by the YMCA Manager and as mutually agreed.

28.2.5 Where an Employee is required to travel for work purposes, the YMCA Manager may authorise that the travel be done by public transport, in which case the Employee will receive a travel allowance payment equivalent to the cost of the available public transport.

28.3 Employee Obligations

28.3.1 If the Employee is required to drive a motor vehicle in the course of his/her employment with the Employer, he/she shall at all times maintain a current valid driver’s licence.

28.3.2 The Employee is responsible for taking out and maintaining adequate insurance in relation to the use and operation of his/her motor vehicle.

28.3.3 The Employee is also responsible for any other costs and expenses incurred in relation to the use of his/her motor vehicle.

28.3.4 The Employee must at all times during the course of his/her employment drive his/her motor vehicle in accordance with all relevant legislation and regulations.

The accident must be reported and recorded by the Police and a claim accepted by the Employee’s personal vehicle insurance provider. Supporting evidence may be required by the Employer.

29.1.3 Temporary Employees will be entitled to annual leave at the end of the fixed period of employment with the Employer at the same accrual rate as full-time Employees but on a pro rata basis according to time actually worked and the duration of the fixed period of employment, and capped at 152 hours per annum. If a temporary Employee becomes a permanent full-time or part-time Employee, the annual leave entitlement may be accrued and taken at a later date.

Taking of Accrued Annual Leave

29.2.1 Applications requesting periods of annual leave shall be made by the Employee in writing on the appropriate form giving at least 14 days notice, where possible.

29.2.2 The application for annual leave will be considered by the Employer where the appropriate notice is provided, with such annual leave being taken at times agreed between the Employer and the Employee, recognising that annual leave will not normally be given during seasonal work periods, and that during school holiday periods, annual leave may be prioritized for Employees with school age children.

29.2.3 When more than 8 weeks annual leave entitlement has been accrued, the Employer may direct the Employee take up to ¼ of the amount of annual leave which is credited to the Employee at the time direction is given, as soon as possible.

29.3 Payment for Annual Leave and Leave Loading

29.3.1 While the Employee is on leave, the Employer will continue to pay the Employee in the regular pay period or where mutually agreed between the Employee and the Employer, payment may be made in advance of the leave being taken.

29.4.2 On termination of employment, any hours of annual leave which the Employee has accrued but not taken, including accrued pro rata annual leave with respect to periods of continuous service less than twelve months, shall be paid to the Employee at the base rate of pay, with an additional leave loading of 17.5% for each hour accrued.

29.4.3 The entitlement to receive payment for leave loading or the greater of the relevant shift allowances or penalties as described in clause 30.4.1 shall not apply to annual leave entitlements that were accrued prior to the 4th April 2006, being the commencement date of the YMCA Staff Certified Agreement 2005.

29.5 Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays

29.5.1 For a full-time Employee, when a public holiday as set out in this Agreement falls within a period of annual leave, an additional day will be credited to the full-time Employee’s annual leave balance.

29.5.2 For a part-time Employee, when a public holiday falls within a period of annual leave and is observed on a day which the part-time Employee would have ordinarily worked, additional time equivalent to the ordinary working time that would have been worked if such day had not been a holiday, will be credited to the part-time Employee’s annual leave balance.
29.6 Temporary Closing to Allow Annual Leave

29.6.1 Where an Employer intends to temporarily close (or reduce to a nucleus) the YMCA Workplace or a section of it for the purpose, amongst others, of allowing annual leave to the Employees concerned or a majority of them, an Employer shall give to the Employees concerned at least 1 month’s notice in writing.

29.6.2 Provided that where an Employee has insufficient accrued annual leave, the Employee shall be given the option of:

30 FRACTIONAL EMPLOYMENT CYCLE

30.1 A full-time Employee (other than an Employee working under the Accrued Day Off System) may apply to the YMCA Manager to work a 48, 49, 50 or 51 week employment cycle in lieu of a 52-week employment cycle. The Employee will therefore take an additional 1 to 4 week’s leave (“fractional leave”) per year and to receive 48 to 51 weeks’ pay (as appropriate) in lieu of 52 weeks’ pay (“the fractional employment cycle”).

30.2 Based on the needs of the work unit, the YMCA Manager may approve or not approve the request. If the YMCA Manager approves the request, the fractional employment cycle will commence at a mutually agreed time, and in accordance with the following requirements:

30.2.1 The Employee will become a fractional Employee at the appropriate fraction of the Employee’s normal full-time equivalent, and will accordingly accrue all employment benefits at the fractional rate. All benefits that the Employee has previously accrued on a full-time basis will be retained.

30.2.2 The Employee will be required to take the fractional leave within the relevant 52 week cycle, although it is not necessary that this fractional leave be taken in a single block. Fractional leave will not accrue beyond each 52-week cycle.
30.2.3 The Employee shall apply to take fractional leave well in advance and as early as possible to provide for the adequate re-allocation of his/her duties. Fractional leave will not be approved if the re-allocation of duties would create an unreasonable workload for other Employees.

30.2.4 Subject to the requirements of the relevant superannuation scheme, the Employee may choose to maintain the Employer and any Employee contributions on a full-time employment basis, however the Employer shall only be obliged to cover the cost of the Employer contributions at the fractional rate.

30.2.5 The fractional employment cycle is to be reviewed annually. Towards the end of the 52-week cycle, the Employee will be provided with the choice of reverting to full-time status or of continuing on the fractional employment cycle. If the Employee decides to revert to full-time status, any fractional leave he/she has accrued must be taken before converting back to full time status and within the current 52-week period.

39.1.3 Payment in lieu of the prescribed notice will be made if the appropriate notice period is not required to be worked. Provided that employment may be terminated by the Employee working part of the required period of notice and by the Employer making payment for the remainder of the period of notice.

39.1.4 The required amount of payment in lieu of notice must equal or exceed the total of all amounts that, if the Employee’s employment had continued until the end of the required period of notice, the Employer would have become liable to pay to the Employee because of the employment continuing during that period. That total must be calculated on the basis of:

39.1.4(a) the Employee’s ordinary hours of work (even if not standard hours); and

39.1.4(b) the amounts ordinarily payable to the Employee in respect of those hours, including (for example) allowances, loading and penalties; and

39.2 Termination Without Notice

39.2.1 The Employee’s employment may be terminated by the Employer immediately and without notice in the case of dismissal for serious misconduct.

39.3 Notice of Termination by an Employee

39.3.1 The notice of termination required to be given by an Employee is the same as that required of an Employer, save and except that there is no requirement on the Employee to give additional notice based on the age of the Employee concerned.

39.3.2 If an Employee fails to give notice the Employer will have the right to withhold monies due to the Employee with a maximum amount equal to the amount the Employee would have received if they had worked during the period of notice.

39.4 Job Search Entitlement

39.4.1 During the period of notice of termination given by the Employer, an Employee will be allowed up to 1 day’s time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

39.4.2 If the Employee has been allowed paid leave for more than 1 day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Employee may, at the request of the Employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not receive payment for time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

39.5 Statement of Employment

39.5.1 The Employer will, upon receipt of a request from an Employee whose employment has been terminated, provide to the Employee a written statement specifying the period of their employment and the classification of and/or type of work performed by the Employee.

However, an Employee shall not be entitled to notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice for any period of continuous service in respect of which notice has already been given or paid for.

40 REDUNDANCY

40.1.3 “Small Employer” means an Employer who employs fewer than 15 Employees.

40.1.4 “Transmission” includes transfer, conveyance, assignment or succession whether by agreement or by operation of law and transmitted has a corresponding meaning.

40.2.2 No severance pay shall be made by the Employer to the Employee in circumstances where the Employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for the Employee, whether or not the Employee accepts such alternative employment, or where an Employee is offered acceptable alternative employment with another YMCA employer. However, where the Employer has exhausted all reasonable redeployment and alternative employment options, or the Employee has not been offered acceptable alternative employment with another YMCA employer, redundancy payments will be payable.

40.2.3 Clause 41.7 applies instead of this clause 41.2 in circumstances involving transmission of business.

40.3 Transfer to Lower Paid Duties

40.3.1 Where an Employee accepts a transfer to lower paid duties through redeployment by reason of redundancy, the Employee shall have no entitlement to severance pay. However, the same period of notice must be given as the Employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated and the Employer will make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former base rate of pay and the new base rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

<tr>

40.4.2 If at the time the Employee’s position is made redundant the Employer employs fewer than 15 Employees, then irrespective of what is provided for in clause 41.4.1 above, the maximum amount of severance pay payable for Employees with more than 4 years’ service is 8 weeks’ pay.

40.4.3 Provided that the severance payments shall not exceed the amount which the Employee would have earned if employment with the Employer had proceeded to the Employee’s normal retirement date.

40.4.4 Continuity of service shall be calculated in the manner prescribed by this Agreement.

40.7.1(b)  Where the Employee rejects an offer of employment with the transmittee:

40.7.1(b)(i)  in which the terms and conditions are substantially similar and no less favourable, considered on an overall basis, than the terms and conditions applicable to the Employee at the time of ceasing employment with the transmittor; and

41.1  Ongoing employment with the Employer is subject to the Employee providing the Employer with copies of current minimum qualifications as specified in the Employee’s position description.

41.2  Casual employees are responsible for the cost of obtaining and/or maintaining the minimum qualifications required and will not be paid for attendance at any course they attend for this purpose.

41.3  Full-time and part-time Employees may use their training entitlement as outlined in clause 12.3 for obtaining and/or maintaining the minimum qualifications required. Once the training entitlement has been used, full-time and part-time Employees will be responsible for the cost of obtaining and/or maintaining the minimum qualifications required.

41.4  It is the responsibility of each Employee to ensure that minimum qualifications are kept up-to-date, however wherever possible, the Employer will endeavour to give Employees 4 weeks notice prior to the expiration date of the Employer’s file copies of qualifications.

41.5  For any period of time that the Employee cannot comply with the standard of minimum qualifications as specified in the position description, the Employer may require the Employee to:

   42.1.2  he/she will take all reasonable care in the use of the Employer’s property and will protect any such property in his/her care;

42.1.4 For the purpose of this clause, “confidential information” includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the Employer’s proprietary rights, intellectual property and trade secrets, or any information relating to the Employer’s accounts, business affairs, business and marketing plans and information, clients, computer data and systems, contractors, designs, finances, inventions, manuals, management, management information systems, products, policies, processes, prospects, reports, research, sales plans, service providers, suppliers, transactions; and any data bases, data surveys, drawings, files, photographs, plans, present or potential client/customer lists, records, reports, specifications, software or other documents, material or other information (whether verbal, written, recorded electronically or in any other format), concerning the Employer, or any of its Employees, clients, contractors, suppliers or service providers and any other information which is reasonably regarded as confidential being information not in the public domain or known to competitors of the Employer (other than as a result of a breach of this clause by the Employee).

43.2 Employees shall not engage in any other business activity (including employment) which is similar to or competitive with the business of the Employer or the YMCA or which impairs an Employee’s ability to act at all times in the best interests of the Employer and the YMCA outside their normal hours of work for the Employer, unless the Employer expressly permits them to do so, in writing. Such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
43.3 All information and rights in relation to programs or activities of the Employer and the YMCA generally, either created by the Employee whilst an Employee of the Employer or created by any other Employee at the time, or created by other persons for the Employer or the YMCA at any time, are confidential to the Employer and the YMCA and remain the property of the Employer and the YMCA.

43.4 During the course of employment with the Employer or at any time afterwards, Employees are not permitted to make use of any of those programs or activities referred to in this clause for their own personal benefit or for the personal benefit of other persons without first obtaining the prior written permission of the Employer, which will only be granted at the sole discretion of the Employer.

44 CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECKS & WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK

44.1 Employment with the Employer may be subject to a Working with Children Check and a National Criminal History Information Check in accordance with the YMCA Criminal History Check Policy and Procedures, as varied from time to time.

44.2 Employees may be required to undergo a re-check of their National Criminal History Information during their employment with the Employer in accordance with the YMCA Criminal History Check Policy and Procedures. If the result of the check indicated that the Employee cannot perform the inherent requirements of the job, the Employee’s employment may be immediately terminated under clause 40.2 of the Agreement.

44.3 The YMCA Criminal History Check Policy and Procedures is not incorporated into and does not form part of this Agreement.

45 STAND DOWN CLAUSE

45.1 The Employer reserves the right to deduct payment for any day or part of a day the Employee cannot usefully be employed because of any strike or through any breakdown in machinery, or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the Employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

45.2 In these situations, the Employer will attempt to find suitable alternative employment at another YMCA workplace for the period of stand down.

45.3 The standing down of an Employee in accordance with the above does not break the continuity of employment for the purpose of any entitlement.
